Provisioning[1]

Strong provision coverage retained – loan loss provisions broadly stable

Total credit provisions

Provisions and scenarios

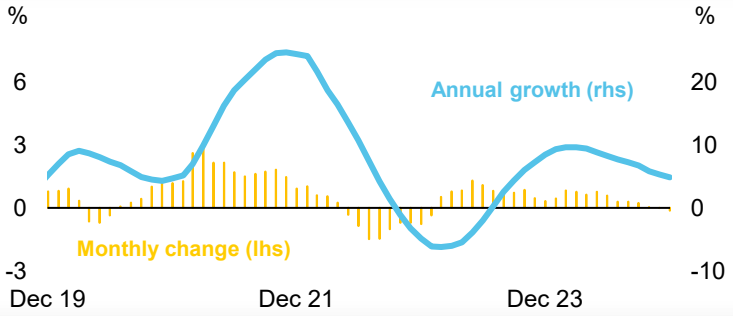

1. The Group uses four alternative macroeconomic scenarios to reflect a range of possible future outcomes in estimating the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) for significant portfolios, scenarios are updated based on changes in both the macroeconomic and geopolitical environment. 2. Revised APRA capital framework effective from 1 January 2023. 3. Assuming 100% weighting holding all assumptions including forward-looking adjustments constant and includes individually assessed provisions. 4. Central scenario is based on the Group's internal economic forecasts and market consensus as well as other assumptions used in business planning and forecasting. 5. The downside scenario contemplates the potential impact of possible, but less likely, adverse macroeconomic conditions, resulting from significant inflationary pressures which leads to disorderly asset price declines, a sharp increase in credit spreads, corporate defaults and high unemployment. This is exacerbated by a breakdown in global trade and compounded by geopolitical risks. The scenario also reflects the potential macroeconomic impacts of climate risk from a severe drought in Australia, through a decline in house prices, higher unemployment as well as weaker growth.

CET1 – International

APRA's capital framework is more conservative than Basel framework

International adjustments[1]
1.6%	Definition of capital	Risk weighting equity investments, deferred tax assets, capitalised expenses which are fully deducted from CET1 under APRA rules
1.5%	IRRBB RWA	Removal of IRRBB RWA from APRA's minimum Pillar 1 capital requirements
1.5%	Residential mortgages	Removal of APRA's risk weight floors and multipliers (e.g. 1.4 owner-occupier, 1.7 interest-only)

Stage 2 exposures by credit grade[2]

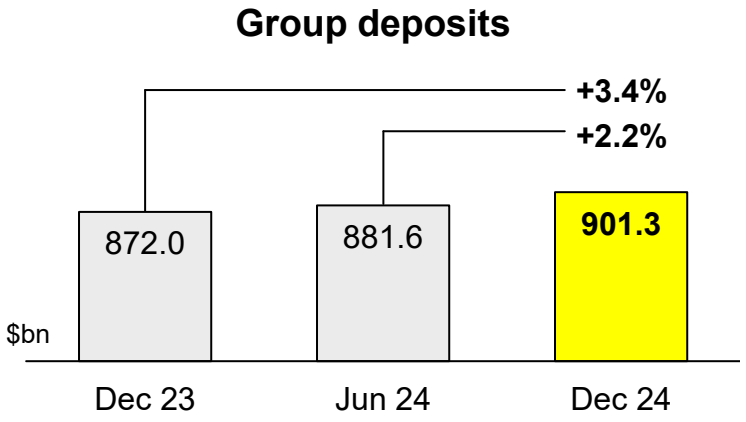

1. AASB 9 classifies loans into stages; Stage 1 – Performing, Stage 2 – Performing but significantly increased credit risk, Stage 3 – Non-performing. Performing relates to Stage 1 and Stage 2. Non-performing relates to Stage 3. Stage 2 is defined based on a significant deterioration in internal credit risk ratings, as well as other indicators such as arrears. Assessment of Stage 2 includes the impact of forward-looking adjustments for emerging risk. 2. Segmentation of loans in retail and risk rated portfolios is based on the mapping of a counterparty's internally assessed PD to S&P Global ratings (refer to Pillar 3), reflecting a counterparty's ability to meet their credit obligations. 3. The assessment of significant increase in credit risk includes the impact of forward looking multiple economic scenarios in addition to adjustments for emerging risks at an industry, geographic location or particular portfolio segment level, which are calculated by stressing an exposure's internal credit rating grade at the reporting date. This accounts for approximately 60% of Stage 2 exposures as at 31 December 2024 (30 June 2024: 64%, 31 December 2023: 62%).

Asset quality

Commercial Property

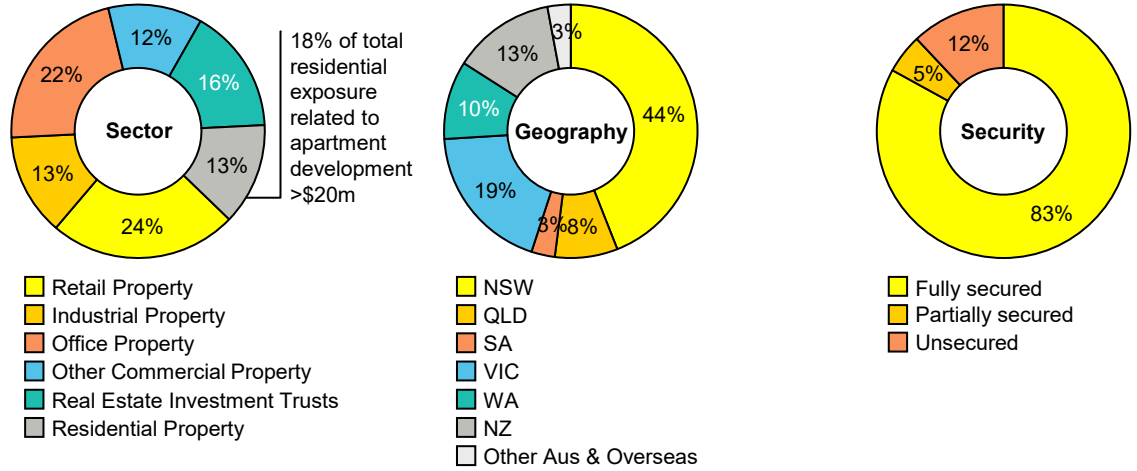

Diversified growth, improved trading conditions

- Commercial property trading activity has started to increase as institutions and offshore buyers have weighed back into property markets.
- Increased trading activity over the half contributed to exposure growth of ~4% which was diversified across sectors and counterparties.
- The portfolio remains well-secured. Leverage for the individually risk-rated property investment portfolio, which represents the majority of the exposure to the sector, remains moderate with an average Loan to Valuation Ratio (LVR) of 46%[1].
- Of the unsecured exposure, 90% is to investment grade customers.
- TNPE decrease over the half is driven by repayments of exposures to a small number of single names and improved performance resulting in upgrades to performing for a number of customers. No material losses expected.
- Modest improvements in Prime and Secondary CBD Office values over the last six months after having declined from peak valuations in 2022.
- Office exposures are weighted toward Premium/A Grade property with tighter origination LVRs in place for markets with persistently high vacancy levels.
- Cost of living pressures and potential impacts for retailers considered through retail originations with tighter criteria for assets with predominantly discretionary retailers as tenants.
- Maintaining close portfolio oversight with serviceability and Interest Coverage Ratio (ICR) origination thresholds continuing to factor in future cash flows. This combined with active management of LVRs has resulted in the portfolio remaining well buffered against further deterioration in asset values.

Group exposure

Profile

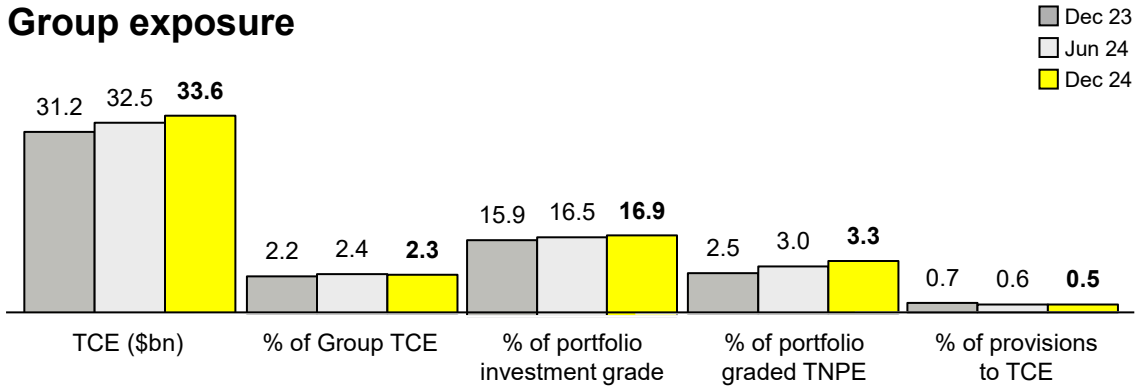

1. The remaining exposure primarily relates to statistically managed exposures where LVR is not available, and property development.

Agriculture & Forestry

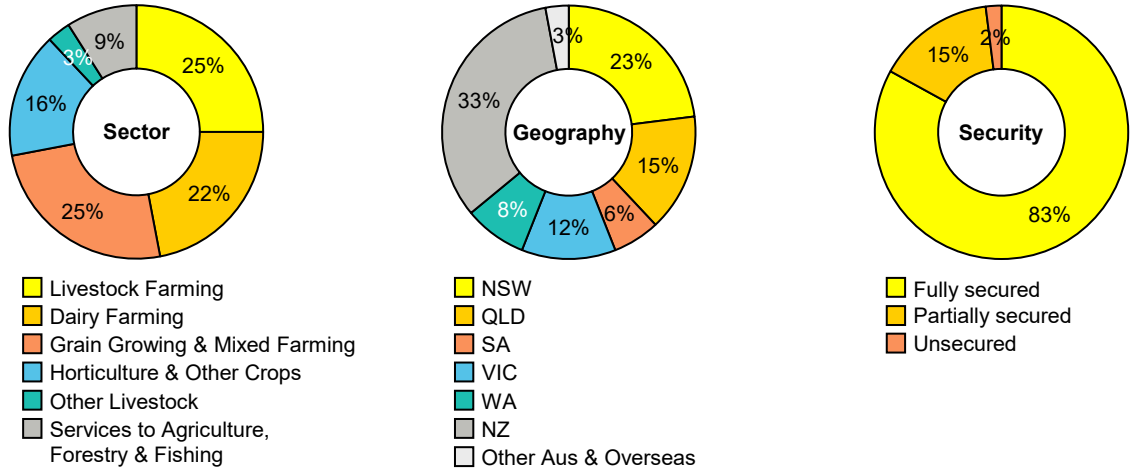

Moderate growth, well-secured - market conditions sound

- Portfolio growth of ~3% in the half, mostly in Livestock Farming, Grain Growing and Mixed Farming.
- Weather conditions have been generally favourable, with good subsoil moisture profiles in most regions. There were drier conditions in SA and central/southern VIC, with some impact to cropping yields and available feed for livestock.
- Winter crop harvesting is now complete with production expected to increase to 55.1m tonnes which is 17% above the 10-year average. Strongest results were in NSW, QLD and WA. South-eastern Australia output had mixed impacts from lower rainfall and some localised frosts.
- Calendar year 2024 saw stability return to the beef cattle market following mixed conditions and completion of the national herd build in 2023. Australian cattle prices finished the year at 610c/kg, up from a low of 340c/kg in October 2023. Increased export demand from China and USA has seen further increases in early 2025.
- Australian lamb prices progressively improved over the last 9 months of the year from 766c/kg to recent highs of 946c/kg. Prices appear to be moderating at around 800c/kg at present.
- Avian Bird Flu remains a watch with some customers impacted and strong physical controls and exclusions implemented by growers and State authorities.
- TNPE has increased largely due to higher-for-longer interest rates and input costs. The agriculture portfolio remains well-secured.

Group exposure

Profile

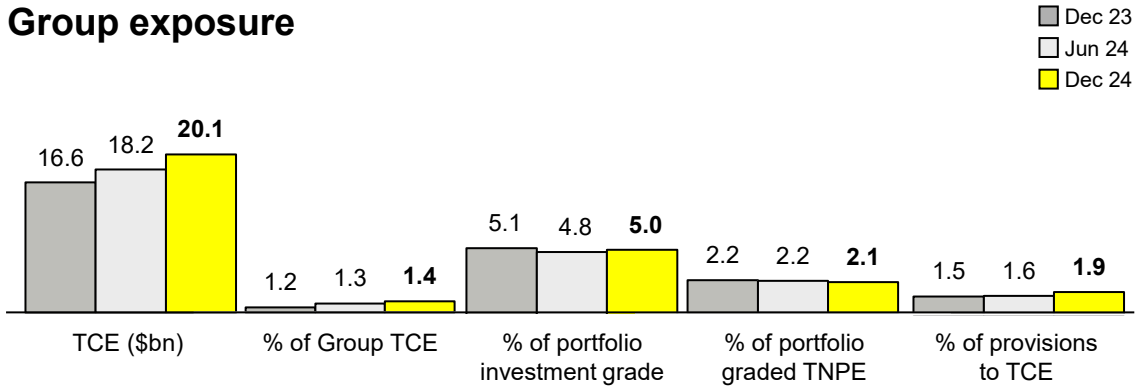

Entertainment, Leisure & Tourism

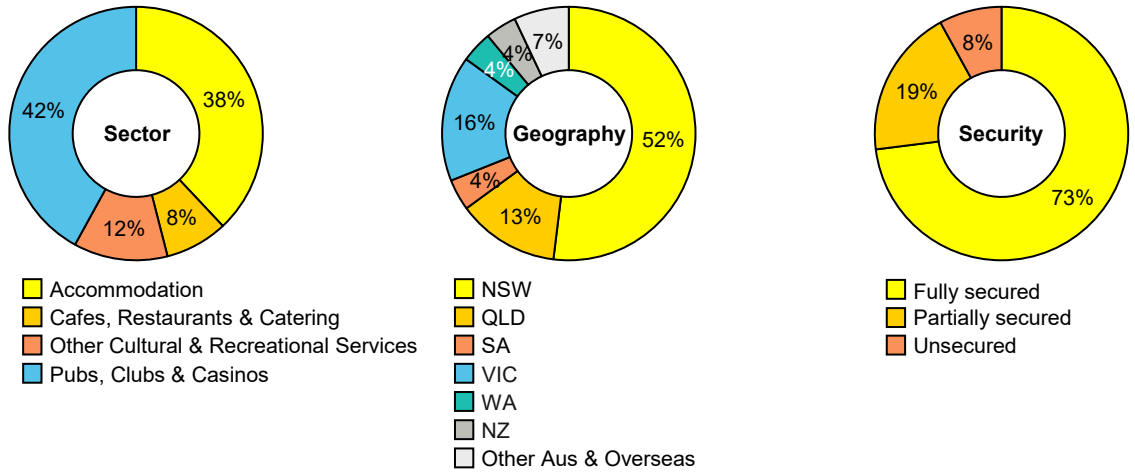

Sector performance remains steady

- Portfolio growth of ~10% in the half weighted to Accommodation, with the sub-sector increasingly attracting largely offshore institutional capital flows.
- LVRs are typically lower than 55%, with minimum ICR requirements a key constraint on gearing.
- Spend across Pubs & Clubs continues to be healthy with higher patronage more than offsetting lower spend per patron.
- Increase in provisions in the half reflects cautious outlook for Cafes and Restaurants sub-sector given cost of living pressures impacting discretionary spend. The portfolio is well-provisioned given the cautious outlook for the sector.

Group exposure

Profile

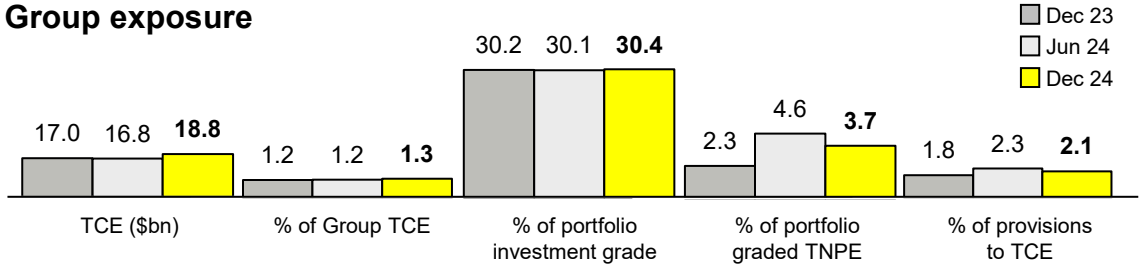

Wholesale & Retail Trade

Strong inventory management essential for Wholesale Trade, Retail Trade outlook remains challenging

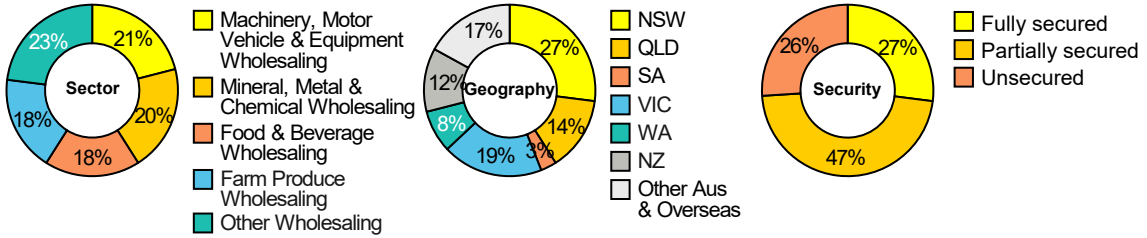

Wholesale Trade

- Portfolio growth of ~12% in the half, focused on higher quality and diversified operators within the sector across Farm Produce, Food & Beverage and Mineral, Metal & Chemicals sub-sectors.
- Operators continue to implement strong inventory management systems to control obsolete stock and over ordering.
- Supply chain issues remain evident, particularly with ongoing Red Sea tensions impacting maritime shipping timelines and increasing costs.
- Percentage of portfolio graded TNPE impacted by a large single name exposure downgraded in the prior period; the exposure continues to be managed down via a mix of proceeds from inventory unwind and non-core asset sales.

Group exposure

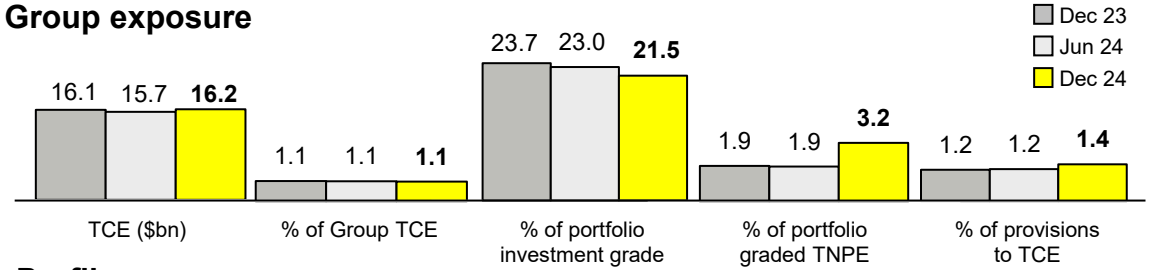

Profile

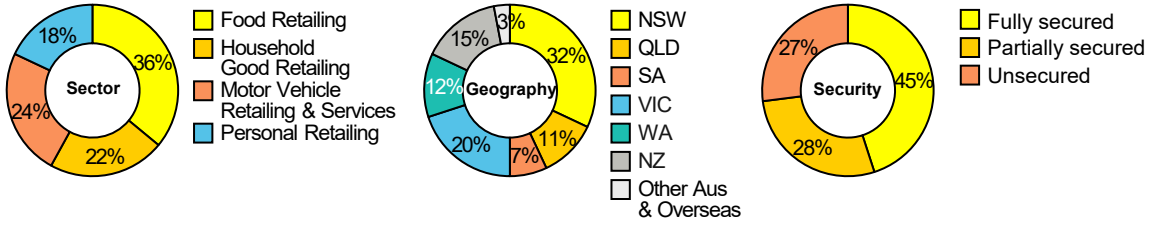

Retail Trade

- Portfolio growth of ~3% in the half reflecting cautious credit settings given sector headwinds. Growth weighted to discretionary retail, primarily to larger, diversified operators and well-secured.
- Cost of living challenges and higher interest rates have pressured retail spend levels, particularly in discretionary sub-sectors, where the outlook remains challenging.
- The portfolio is weighted to non-discretionary segments.
- Percentage of the portfolio graded TNPE increased due to a small number of single name exposures.

Group exposure

Profile

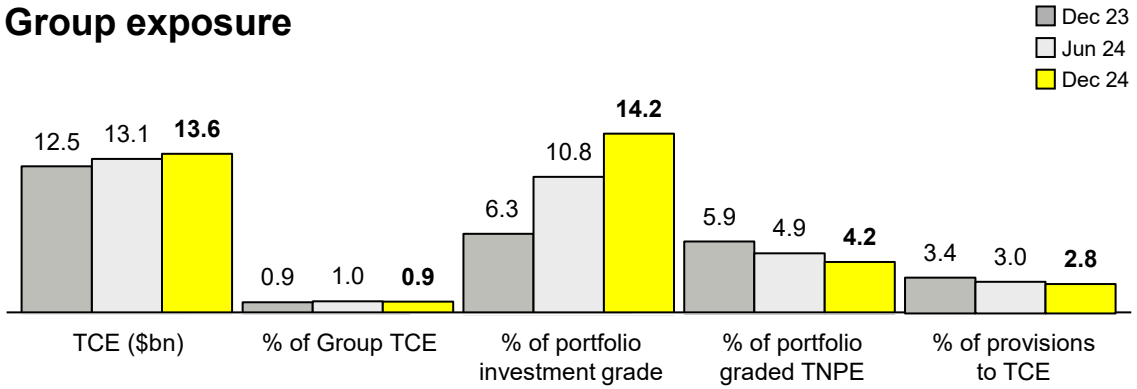

Construction

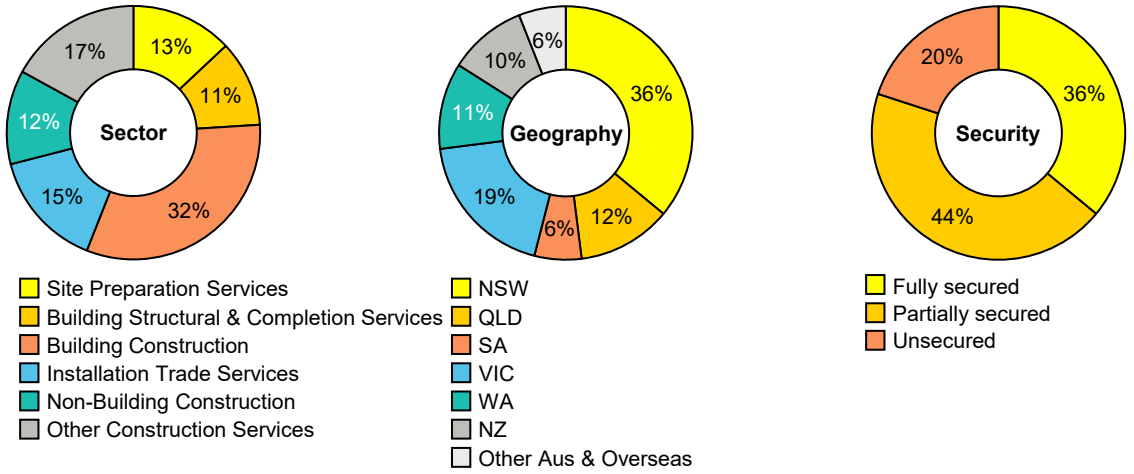

Sector is improving while challenges remain

- Portfolio growth of ~4% in the half focused on established Civil & Non-Building Contractors, and smaller trade services which are in high demand.
- Home builders have worked through long-dated, loss-making contracts and are now delivering strong profits.
- Civil and Non-Building Contractors are generally presenting with healthy work in hand and tender pipelines, supported by ongoing government spend on infrastructure, particularly in relation to defence and the energy transition.
- While we generally see the sector as improving, the cost of construction is high and labour constraints remain a key challenge; and sector insolvencies remain elevated.
- Percentage of the portfolio graded TNPE has reduced due to the upgrade of a number of large single names following a return to profitability.

Cash Profit	The Profit Announcement (PA) discloses the net profit after tax on both a statutory and cash basis. The statutory basis is prepared in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Accounting Standards, which comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). The cash basis is used by management to present a clear view of the Bank's operating results. It is not a measure based on cash accounting or cash flows. The items excluded from cash profit, such as hedging and IFRS volatility and losses or gains on acquisition, disposal, closure, capital repatriation and demerger of businesses are calculated consistently with the prior year and prior half disclosures and do not discriminate between positive and negative adjustments. A list of items excluded from cash profit is provided on page 3 of the Group's 31 December 2024 PA, which can be accessed at our website: www.commbank.com.au/results
